

Holiday Kindness

Hanukkah

Hanukkah is a celebration of resilience, faith, and the miracle of light. Each night, another candle is lit, not to overpower the darkness, but to gently push it back. It's a reminder that even a small flame can illuminate the world.

Kindness during Hanukkah is about showing up for others, especially when they feel forgotten. It's about honoring tradition, sharing joy, and standing firm in the face of adversity.

“A candle loses nothing by lighting another candle.”: James Keller

When we choose kindness, we become part of the miracle. We pass the flame. We multiply the light.

How can you push back the darkness for someone in your life? Tag #KindnessChallenge and #THunterBooks and tell everyone!
